You will be asked for your payment information when you sign up for a free trial. If you don't cancel your subscription before the free trial ends, Netflix will charge the monthly standard fee for the tariff you choose.

The long-established streaming service Netflix hosts movies, documentaries and binge-worthy original series such as Stranger Things, The Crown, Shadow of the Bone and Mindhunter. To help subscribers navigate through the thousands of options, Netflix uses a recommendation algorithm that highlights shows and movies that match your profile and viewing history. Your preferences may be somewhat more specific, such as trending titles, science fiction, fantasy, horror or award winners.

The abolition of the free Netflix trial reflects massive changes in the streaming industry which was introduced in the short term in response to the Coronavirus pandemic and long term since Netflix launched its first original series in 2021. In the short term, a number of streaming services stopped offering free trial versions in 2021, because they minimized losses by bringing movies intended for cinema release to streamers. Disney's release of Hamilton on its service and Pixar's film Souls are among the major releases that have brought millions into the service, bringing in a sizable audience of people who watched the film on a free trial and then canceled their subscriptions.

Depending on which Netflix tariff you choose, you will have access to ultra HD videos and the ability to stream across multiple screens. If you qualify for one of these plans, you can watch your favorite movies and TV shows on Netflix in the US.
